Polisi Codi Tâl – Charging Policy

The Governing Body's intention is providing education without compulsory charges to parents. The majority of activities are financed with funds received from the county Council. There are, however, some valuable educational activities which the school cannot provide without seeking some voluntary contributions from parents.

In accordance with the requirements of the Education Reform Act 1988, it is the policy of the Governing Body:

- to levy, except where pupils are entitled to statutory remission, a charge for all board and lodging costs on residential visits:
- to levy a charge for activities wholly or mainly outside school hours which are not part of the National Curriculum or statutory religious education.
- to levy no charge in respect of books, materials, equipment, instruments provided in connection with the National Curriculum or religious education.
- to request voluntary contributions from parents for school activities in or out of school time for which compulsory charges cannot be levied but which can only be provided if there is sufficient voluntary funding, whilst ensuring that no pupil is excluded from such activity by reason of inability or unwillingness to make a voluntary contribution.
- To seek payment from parents for damage to or loss of school property caused wilfully or negligently by their children.
- To leave to the Headteacher's discretion, the proportion of costs of an activity which should be borne by the school.
